

Sunsets 1/1/2016

48-2c-1504 No limits on regulating board.

Nothing in this chapter restricts or limits in any manner the authority and duty of the regulating board to license individuals rendering professional services or the practice of the profession that is within the jurisdiction of the regulating board, notwithstanding that the individual is a member, manager, or employee of a company and rendering the professional services or engaging in the practice of the profession through the company.